Remember When:

Max Baer, the former heavyweight champion, took a big stride on the comeback trail by winning a 15-round decision over Tommy Farr, the British champion, 19 years ago Tuesday. Baer had beaten Primo Carnera for the title in 1934, and lost it to James J. Braddock in 1935. He never got a title match against champion Joe Louis.

Penticton Juveniles To Defend B.C. Title

PENTICTON (CP)—Penticton defending British Columbia juvenile hockey champions, entered the B.C. final for the second straight year, dumping Kimberley 11-2 Tuesday night to take a two-game total-point series 19-5.

More than 800 fans here saw Penticton jump into a 4-1 first period lead, increase it to 7-1 after two periods and then coast to their victory with three goals in the final period.

Penticton now meets the coast champions at Victoria in a best-of-three series. The first is Friday, the second Saturday morning, and the third, if necessary, at Nanaimo Sunday.

Army Boxing Meet B.C. Area Eliminations

Army boxers from the first battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry of Victoria and the Royal Canadian School of Military Engineering at Chilliwack square off at the Bay Street Armory tomorrow night in the B.C. area championships.

Six of the seven bouts on the card, which starts at 8 p.m., are in the novice class. Feature bout of the night is in the open class (fighters with 10 or more bouts to their credit) and puts L. Diggs of the PPCLI against F. Plach of the RCSME in the welterweight class.

Winners of tomorrow's bouts will advance to the Western Command finals April 2-3 in Vancouver. Two other fighters, Canadian light-middleweight champion Lawrence Cardinal and light-welterweight champion George Henry, have been seeded into the Western Command tournament.

In other events tomorrow night, J. Flynn (PPCLI) meets G. Doyle (RCSME) in the novice bantamweight division; W. Whalen (PPCLI) takes on V. Butler (RCSME) in the featherweight class; R. Heaver and A. Ptak, both of RCSME, meet in the welterweight division.

L. Richardson (PPCLI) takes on D. Smith (RCSME) in a light-middleweight bout; E. Handspiker (PPCLI) fights A. LaRoche (RCSME) in the middleweight class, and W. Reid (PPCLI) meets P. Cardiff (RCSME) in the light-heavyweight division.
